Declaration

The College accepts people from varying backgrounds and different denominations and welcomes theological discussion. If accepted as a student at the College, I will seek to respect those whose views differ from my own and to live in a spirit of fellowship with all in the College community.

At ICC, training for effective Christian service involves spiritual development as well as academic and practical training. I agree to participate, as appropriate, in the worship and prayer life of the College as well as in its programmes of study.

I confirm that the above information is to the best of my knowledge accurate and complete in every material aspect. I know of no reason why my application should not be considered. I consent to the College contacting the referees supplied as well as competent personnel involved with regard to my educational background, where appropriate. I understand that acceptance of a place on the programme entails agreement to any conditions attached and conformity to the rules of the college.
