Declaration

The College accepts people from varying backgrounds and different denominations and welcomes theological discussion. If accepted as a student at the College, I will seek to respect those whose views may differ from my own and to live in a spirit of fellowship and love with all in the College community.

At ICC, training for effective Christian service involves spiritual development as well as academic and practical training. I will seek to display a constructive attitude to involvement in the College community and agree to participate, as appropriate, in the worship and prayer life of the College as well as in its course(s) of study.

I confirm that the above information is to the best of my knowledge accurate and complete in every material respect. I know of no reason why my application should not be considered. I consent to the College contacting the referee supplied as well as competent personnel involved with regard to my educational and medical background, where appropriate. I understand that acceptance of a place on the Course entails agreement to any conditions attached and conformity to the rules of the College.
